FIGHTS BACK!

Editorial

OCTOBER 1992.

Congratulations to the Clarendon Club for its excellent choice of Ernst Zundel as the guest speaker at it's recent London Seminar. For nobody represents the spirit of the Anglo-Saxon, better than this man. Zundel's fight against those who would wish to censor history has been an example to us all. The Victory that he forecast almost nine years ago has now materialised.

His Victory, is Our Victory !
Ernst Zundel, we salute you !

ERNST ZUNDEL

"THE VICTOR"

"THE VANQUISHED"

Our lead story shows to what lengths frustrated people will go to, when they feel that their government is no longer acting in the best interests of the people that they were elected to serve.For Young Germans viewed with increasing anger the rapid destruction of their Race and Nation, whilst their government did nothing.Eventually, they took themselves on to the streets, and demonstrated violently, until the government was forced to act.

Surely there must be a lesson in all of this for our own British government.

In Germany, Nationalist Parties are given equal treatment when it comes to elections. T.V. time, access to halls and financial aid from the state, all are provided to ensure that the Parties have an equal opportunity to promote their policies. Also, under the proportional representation system the people's wishes are better reflected in make up of National and local government. Yet still, political violence is needed to prove a point.

In Britain, we have no such equality. Nationalist Parties have no state funding, no equality of prime television time, and no Proportional Representation system. In short, our masters make sure that we have no realistic opportunity to gain power. Must we emulate our German colleagues and go violently on to the streets to get our voice heard. ? I hope not !

Once again the Notting Hill carnival ended in an orgy of crime and violence. This year, because of the adverse weather, and the fear of being mugged or raped, the numbers of visitors was drastically reduced. But still the numbers of reported crimes, and arrests were up, and three people ended up "celebrating" carnival from hospital beds, all having been stabbed by the type of thug that this event traditionally attracts.

Whilst our "masters" continue to ban marches and demonstrations by Patriotic Nationalists groups on the grounds of "public interest" and "law and order", this ethnic event is allowed to continue unhindered. Is it therefore any wonder that Patriotic White Nationalists are becoming increasingly bitter ???

GERMAN YOUTH FIGHTS BACK!

Young German Nationalists, with their policy of taking "Direct Action" against the hundreds of thousands of immigrants currently pouring into Germany, look to have succeeded in forcing their Government into abandoning the controversial "Open Door" approach to "political refugees".

Over the past few months, hundreds of young Nationalist, in dozens of towns in all parts of Germany, have shown their opposition to the massive influx of "economic refugees", by attacking both them, and the hostel accommodation provided for them under the infamous "article 16" of the German constitution, which gives the right of abode to "anyone who is being persecuted in their own country because of their political or religious beliefs".

Article 16, has enabled some 454,000 "refugees" to claim asylum in Germany so far this year.

Prominent amongst them are Africans, Vietnamese, and even Rumanian Gipsy families, all pouring into a country which itself is facing mass unemployment and a housing shortage. The "refugees" cross the borders by a variety of means, and then, once on German soil,they claim "asylum. They are then distributed across the country on a quota basis, with the local authorities required by law to house and feed the unwanted masses.

This policy has caused unprecedented hardship in some parts of the country, with one local authority in Lemforde, Northern Germany, even being forced to "requisition" , spare rooms in private houses, and forcing the tenants to share the house with families of Polish Gipsies.

Whilst public reaction has shown a marked swing towards the German Nationalist Parties such as the Republikaners, and the NDP,both of whom vigorously oppose this "back door immigration"policy, young Germans realised that they would be forced to wait until the next General Elections before any changes could be made.

Almost spontaneously they took to the streets to show their disapproval.This took the form of attacking the immigrants, and burning the hostels that housed them. In almost every town, the local population, watched, and cheered as the young Nationalists forced the bogus refugees to flee.

A young German Nationalist Leader, told "Sentinel's" German correspondent, "many of our people in what was formerly East Germany, have no jobs, and are forced to live in sub-standard housing, and we are not prepared to sit back and allow Gipsies and other foreigners to come here and take our Country away from us, nor will we stop our campaign of Direct Action, until these people have gone. You must also realise, that in our own way, we are also fighting for Britain and the rest of Europe, for under the laws of the EEC, these foreigners once granted citizenship in Germany, then have also the right to move to any other country within the EEC. This we cannot allow, the fight goes on".

FOOTNOTE: As we were going to print we were informed that the German government had surrendered, and would be deporting 43,000 Gipsies back to Romania.

ZUNDEL SPEAKS AT LONDON REVISIONIST SEMINAR

The second major Revisionist Seminar to be held in London recently, welcomed as their surprise guest speaker, the hero of the "Holohoax", ERNST ZUNDEL.

Predictably, the event was preceded by a march organised by an ad-hoc, "Stop Irving" committee, comprising of the more nauseous members of the "Anti-Nazi League", the "Campaign Against Fascism in Europe" the"Anti-Racist Alliance",and the Union of Jewish Students.

Unfortunately for them, their day started badly, and gradually got worse. Their troubles began when a 70 strong gang of "anti-Fascist hard men" were chased down the road by just TWO Nationalists near the meeting re-direction point. Following this, they then decided to march on the "Friends Meeting House" in Euston, believing that to be the venue for the seminar, only to interrupt a gathering a Catholic Women Evangelists who had booked the hall.

Finally, having spent the best part of the day parading aimlessly through Central London, just when they had located the correct venue, they were "advised by the Police to go home FOR THEIR OWN SAFETY.!!

The Seminar, organised jointly by the Clarendon Club, and the Western Goals Institute, chose the "media" as the main topic for discussion.
The distinguished Historian Mr David Irving, told the 150 strong audience, of his experience when dealing with editor of the Sunday Times newspaper, and of the pressure applied to that newspaper by advertisers, because of it's decision to employ Mr Irving as a translator for the diaries of the former German Propaganda Minister, Josef Goebbels.

The next speaker was Mr Gregory Lauder-Frost, of the Western Goals Institute, who revealed just how few people actually control the media in the western world. In a large country such as the United States, where several million newspapers, books, and magazines, are published every week, it was revealed that a small group of just FIFTY people actually control this mass media.
Mr Lauder-Frost also named many of the "media barons" both in the U.S. and Britain, and it was immediately recognised, that by some coincidence, the majority of these, were members of a "minority" religious group.

ERNST ZUNDEL..

"Freedom is Truth"

"Truth is Freedom"

The main speaker of the evening, was Mr Ernst Zundel, a man that needed no introduction to the Nationalist audience.
Mr Zundel told of his nine year battle against censorship in Canada.
He explained that as a Canadian, of German origin, he had accepted the "Holocaust" as being true, until he read a copy of a British publication, "Did Six Million really die ?" This publication,he said, was a revelation, and he decided to distribute it through his publishing house.
The reaction that this decision provoked, absolutely astonished him he said, for within weeks of distributing the booklet, he became the subject of a massive "Hate" campaign organised by Canadian Jewry.
A quietly spoken man, he told of his non-violent beliefs, and described proudly, how during the entire campaign of legal repression, and physical attacks by the Jewish Defence League, neither he, nor any of his supporters had ever struck a blow.
Finally, he explained, that after several court trials, the long awaited decision finally arrived by fax, from the Canadian Supreme Court.

The historic ruling, was, that Mr Zundel, and indeed any Canadian citizen, had the absolute right to publish any document that they considered to be true. Ernst Zundel was acquitted of all charges.
Mr Zundel also explained how during the long campaign, he managed to combat, first the news boycott of his beliefs, and then the vicious smear campaign mounted against him by the media.

As he finished his speech, the audience rose to applaud, one of the most courageous men of modern times.

POLICE INVESTIGATE A.F.A.

Anti FASCIST ACTION | Anti FASCIST ACTION | Anti FASCIST ACTION | Anti FASCIST ACTION

Police are investigating the "Anti-Fascist Action" organisation, following their controversial documentary on BBC's "OPEN SPACE" programme earlier this year.

The programme featuring ex-boxer Terry Marsh, and "Angelic Upstarts" singer Mensi, highlighted, and sought to justify, the philosophy of a group of criminals calling themselves "AFA" in promoting violence against political opponents, in an attempt to prevent them publicising their legal political beliefs.

The decision to broadcast was firmly criticized in several National newspapers, some of whom even suggested that the "Right to Reply" should be given to the British National Party. A suggestion, that has not yet been accepted by the media moguls in the BBC.

But more specific complaints were made by individual Nationalists, and organisations including the League of St George, who have written to both the Attorney General, and the Director of Public Prosecutions, demanding that criminal charges be brought against the leaders of "Anti-Fascist Action" under various sections of the Public Order Act, with special regard to section two, which makes it a criminal offence to " organise or train a body for the purpose of promoting a political object".Similarly, we have suggested, that other charges such as "incitement to violence" should also be considered.

A video of the offending programme was sent with the complaint, along with copies of the AFA's publication "Fighting Talk", and those of their affiliates such as "Red Action". Surprisingly, the Director of Public Prosecutions office did reply, informing us that the complaint was being examined by the "Special Casework Division" of the Crown Prosecutions Office. This has now been further passed on to Inspector Brown, of the Metropolitan Police, who is presently conducting enquiries.

Copies of "Anti-Fascist Action" literature which you may consider threatening,or provocative, should be sent with a letter of complaint to.. "The Director of Public Prosecutions, 10, Furnival Street, London. EC4 1PE.

Anti FASCIST ACTION

"helping the Police with their enquiries"

Another problem for the AFA came when their much heralded "Unity Carnival" in London's East End, was completely washed out by heavy rain, and with the weather so bad, many of the bands scheduled to perform failed to turn up. However those that did attend, made so much noise, that local residents flooded Hackney council with complaints about their windows literally vibrating with the noise, and the council are considering banning the event in the future.

"SEARCHLIAR'S NEW HIDEOUT REVEALED

"SEARCHLIGHT" the "anti-Fascist" rag, that delights in "exposing" information about Nationalist organisations, has at last had the tables turned on it, as "League Sentinel" can reveal the location of their new offices.
The rag now occupies an office in the "INTERCHANGE CENTRE" in Dalby Street, London NW5.
The office is rented to a Mr Steven Silver, under the name of SEARCHLIGHT SERVICES.
The Interchange Centre, is part of the Interchange Project, and receives substantial grants from both the Arts Council, and the local Camden Council.
"SEARCHLIAR" was forced to move from their previous home at 358, Burford Road, Stratford, when the National Front discovered their whereabouts, and published the details.
Could we now see the removal vans busy around the Interchange Centre ??

RED ACTION ROUTED

Several members of "Anti-Fascist Action", and their affiliate group, "Red Action", were badly injured in an attack on a North London pub recently

The attack came as about a dozen known supporters of the IRA were drinking in the "Enkel Arms" in Seven Sisters Road, North London.
Both "Anti-Fascist Action", and "Red Action" are well known for their support of both the Provisional IRA and the even more Marxist, I.R.S.P. and it was suspected that they were gathering, before moving off to steward the "Troops Out" march in nearby Holloway.
The attack, believed to have been carried out by Ulster Loyalist supporters, left both the pub, and "Red Action" badly damaged.
An "eye witness" told"League Sentinel" "it was a complete rout, a group of young men threw a bench clean through one of the pub windows whilst the reds cowered inside. They were challenged to come out and fight, but declined to do so. One of their so called hard men was desperately trying to get under a table, and when the pub landlord came out, someone threw a bottle at him, and he ran back into the pub."
The absence of their stewards left the IRA march vulnerable, and this became even more apparent, when the marchers were attacked during the march, by young British Nationalists, a further attack took place just as the marchers were disbanding.

MOSLEY'S BLACKSHIRTS, HEROES OR TRAITORS?

In just a few weeks time, at precisely 11.00hrs, on Sunday the 11th of November, many Britons will stop their normal activity, and for two minutes pay silent homage to Britain's War Dead. Millions more will watch ceremonies of Remembrance, from the comfort of their homes, via the television, or listen to them, on their radios.

The "media men" will, with solemn voices, remind the Nation, that those that we pay homage to, on this Remembrance Sunday, were heroes who died fighting for Britain's freedom .

However, what the grateful Nation will NOT be told, is that Britain's first official casualties of the Second World War,.. 549741, Aircraftman 2nd class, Kenneth Day,.. and 546065 Aircraftman 1st class, George Brocking, were both proud Blackshirts of Sir Oswald Mosley's British Union, and, even as they were making that ultimate sacrifice, warmongering politicians were already planning measures to imprison without trial hundreds of their Blackshirt colleagues, as "TRAITORS".

Just a bare seven weeks before Ken Day and George Brocking flew off on their fateful mission, their political leader, Sir Oswald Mosley, had addressed over THIRTY THOUSAND Britons at the Earls Court Exhibition Centre, in London,and urged Britain not to go to war on behalf of European Jewry, but to "Mind Britain's Business", and safeguard our Empire.

Mosley believed "that after such a mighty demonstration, war could not possibly come", but he had not taken into account the ruthless ambitions of politicians such as Winston Churchill, and the cowardly Home Secretary, Herbert Morrison.

Pamphlets, leaflets in their thousands

Almost Dutifully, Britain declared War, and Mosley, forever a Patriot, issued this statement to his Blackshirts.... "To our Members my message is plain and clear. Our Country is involved in War. Therefore I ask you to do nothing to injure our country, or to help any other power. Our members should do what the law requires of them, and if they are members of any of the Forces or Services of the Crown, they should obey their orders, and, in every particular, obey the rules of their Service".

Despite this instruction, Morrison, the cowardly Socialist Home Secretary, who had spent the First War as a "Conscientious Objector",working in a market garden, rather than face the mud and the blood, of Mons and Flanders, invoked the now infamous "CROWN DEFENCE REGULATION 18B", and imprisoned Mosley, his wife, and over 800 Patriotic Blackshirts.

At first the Blackshirts campaigned against the War and then died fighting, to win it !

By this time, in May 1940, Tens of Thousands of Mosley's supporters were already serving in Britain's armed forces. Some even returned from dangerous missions against the enemy, only to be arrested and imprisoned.

In fact, it is ironical, that if Britain's first two War casualties, Brocking and Day, had survived, then they too would almost certainly have been arrested as "TRAITORS".

THE DAY THAT THEY DIED

"To our members my message is plain and clear. Our country is involved in war. Therefore I ask you to do nothing to injure or country, or to help any other power. Our members should do what the law requires of them, and if they are members of any of the forces or services of the Crown, they should obey their orders, and, in every particular, obey the rules of their service".

It is doubtful if British Union members George Brocking and Kenneth Day, had seen Mosley's message to his Blackshirts, by the time that they had hauled themselves into No 9 Squadron's Wellington L4275, just before 16.00hrs, on the afternoon of September the 4th 1939, at their Honnington, Suffolk, Royal Airforce Station.

But they would have known, as would all members of British Union serving in the forces, that the declaration of War had placed Britain in immediate danger.

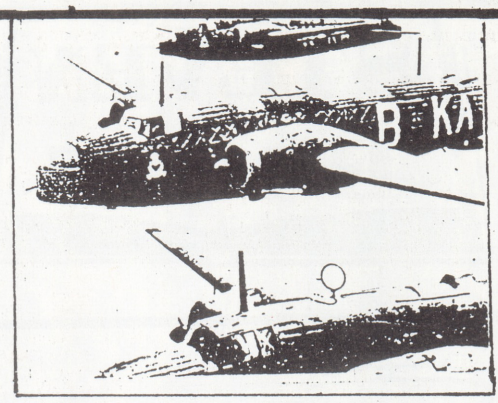
For Brocking and Day, both normally on ground crew duties, had volunteered for flying duties as airgunners, and a five week course qualified them to wear the bullet shaped badge of an airgunner.
Soon was to be their moment of truth, as for the first time in their lonely fixed single gun turrets of the Wellington MklA, they faced the reality of fighter attack, an experience which in their short training could not be simulated.

They had been on "standby" for 48 hours. Time to consider their short past. Time to debate the madness and stupidity of the politicians in leading the sons of the First War generation into a European brothers war in which not one British interest was at stake.

At last the call came, and in minutes, six Wellington Bombers, in two flights of three, roared off the Suffolk base, with instructions to mount a low altitude attack on two enemy battleships, believed to be the Scharnhorst and the Gneisenau, at Brunsbuttel, in the mouth of the Keil canal.

First in, flying at 6000 feet, Flight LT I. Grant led his "B" flight through heavy anti-aircraft fire, provided by several cruisers, as well as shore batteries. They dropped their bombs at the target, and immediately pulled into cloud cover. They all returned home safely to base.

Brocking and Day's "A" flight, led by Squadron Leader L.S. Lamb, were less fortunate. Running in some 20 minutes later, they were immediately attacked by nine messerschmitt 109 fighters, forcing Lamb to jettison his bombs, enabling a quick climb to cloud safety, and home base.



No 9 Squadron, Wellington "B" Flight.

For Wellington L4268, and Brocking and Day's L4275, there was no cloud cover. German reports suggests that one was brought down by A/A fire, and the other by a fighter.
The body of Ken Day was picked up ten days later by a cargo steamer near the Elbe lightships, and buried two days later, with full military honours at Cuxhaven Cemetery. The body of his friend, George Brocking, was never found, and his name is inscribed amongst the other 20,547 airman with no known graves, on the R.A.F. memorial at Runnymede.

George Brocking and Kenneth Day, never learnt of the disgraceful treatment of Sir Oswald Mosley, and their Blackshirt comrades, a fate which could have been theirs.
They will forever hold a special place in our hearts. For in defeat, they were victorious, and in death, they gave new life.
Victory for the spirit of pride in self and country, and of Mosley's purpose..
.."Deliberately we willed the birth of a type who was half soldier and half politician, partly a tough warrior, and partly an inspired idealist..This was our dream..."
And they gave new life, and new hope for the generations to come. Those who will one day yearn for something more in life than the dissatisfying materialism of today. They will begin to feel that there .."are greater things than slothful ease; greater things than safety; more terrible things than death..". And BROCKING and DAY, will have shown the way.

We salute them!

A Labour Councillor has been arrested and charged with obstructing the Police, and unspecified public order offences, following an attempt by the Wolverhampton Anti-Racial Alliance, to physically stop a National Front meeting from taking place.
The Councillor, Mick Conroy, of Ashleigh Road, Rugeley, Birmingham, was amongst a group of 50 "democrats" that had assembled outside of the Coniston Hall, Chadsmoor, and according to an eye witness, punched and spat at those NF members, and members of the public that attempted to enter the hall. Despite this, approximately 40 people, including women and pensioners braved the gauntlet to go in and listen to the NF Chairman Ian Anderson demand "the right of the Nation to determine it's own future."
A total of five "anti-Fascists" were arrested.

A Walsall "anti-Fascist" organiser, has claimed to have received threats from the "Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan" to fire bomb his house if he goes ahead with his plans to organise a protest march against "Fascism and Racism". Steve Jones, Chairman of the Walsall Borough Labour Party, said he had received threats both by post and over the telephone.
The Klan, which is very active in the Midlands, have admitted responsibility for a large "cross-lighting" ceremony held recently in nearby Brownhills.

* * * *

A Tory councillor in Hackney, East London, has also received some Klan material, but he blames this on members of the opposition Labour Party.
Cllr Phil McCullough, says he has received a letter purporting to come from "Knights of the Ku Klux Klan" congratulating him on his "firm stand against immigration". But Cllr McCullough is convinced that the letter is a forgery and told his local newspaper "I think I know who is behind this, someone in the opposition Labour Party is trying to tarnish me".

Loyalist celebrations over the appeal courts decision to release three out of the four men known as the "UDR FOUR", was dampened by the refusal of the Judges, to quash the conviction of Neil Latimer.
James Hegan, Noel Bell and Winston Allen left the court as free men, after the judgement, which confirmed that certain Royal Ulster Constabulary had lied about statements allegedly made by the "Four", confessing to the murder of an IRA supporter in 1983. A murder, which incidentally, the responsibility for, was later claimed by Loyalist paramilitaries.
But in what has been described as "the most cynical decision ever given by a democratic court", Neil Lattimer's conviction was up held.
This decision goes directly against the precedent set by Lord Lane in his "Guilford Four" judgement, who ruled that "if the Police were proven to be lying when giving evidence, then the whole of that evidence must become suspect".

After the trial, a Loyalist colleague told our "Sentinel" reporter that "the Campaign for Justice will continue until the last of the "UDR FOUR", Neil Lattimer, is finally released.

OBITUARY.

It is with great sadness that we have heard of the recent death of,

BILL OWEN

Bill was undoubtedly the founder of the post-war Nationalist struggle in his native Tyneside. For over 20 years he campaigned for the Nationalist cause, either as as candidate or as an organiser.
As a National Front candidate in 1974, he polled over 2000 votes. Later he joined the British National Party, and became it's Tyneside organiser. At the same time, Bill was also a member of the Friends of the League.
Bill will be sadly missed, and our sacred struggle will be that much harder without him.

OVERSEAS NEWS

GERMANY.

Despite Police harassment and court orders, the annual "Rudolf Hess memorial march" went ahead in Germany recently. Whilst being denied access to Wunsiedel, in Bavaria, where Hess is buried,over 2,800 Nationalist held a successful march through Rudolstadt, in Thuringen. Hundreds of local people came out of their houses to cheer the marchers who had made their way from all parts of Europe, and even from as far away as South Africa, to pay their respects to the man who tried so desperately to bring an early end to the second world war.

ISRAEL.

Israeli Education Minister, Shulamit Aloni, confirmed that Black Ethiopian children were being denied places in Israeli schools because of their colour. The children were some of the 30,000 "Black Jews" that were airlifted from Ethiopia in 1985, and admitted to Israel under it's "law of return" which gives all Jews an automatic right to live in the bandit state. However, the immigrants have never been accepted by many Israelis, and consequently have complained about racial discrimination, and what they view as a deliberate "Apartheid" system to prevent them assimilating into the community.

BELGIUM

The Flemish Nationalist party, VLAAMS BLOK, who won seventeen seats in the last General Election, by polling some 388,000 votes, have launched a new, tougher, "immigration" policy.
This includes the prohibition of "jobs in public office" for non-Belgians, and a ban on "public housing" (similar to Britain's Council housing), for non-Europeans.

LEAGUE NEWS.

DIXMUIDE.

The annual "Pilgrimage to the Ijzer" held in Dixmuide was well attended again this year. Despite the cancellation of our planned mini-bus, due to the lack of support, several members and friends of the League made their own way to this rural part of Flanders. There we consolidated old friendships with our European colleagues, and also made several new contacts.

One surprise however, was the re-emergence of former Nationalist cartoonist, Robert Edwards who was with some Flemish Nationalists, who were perhaps unaware of his past.

Edwards, a one time officer of the League, must be best remembered not for his cartoons, but for his betrayal of his League comrades in co-operating with a journalist named Mike Williams, in smearing the League in a series of newspaper articles, alleging links with European terrorist groups.

Apart from Edwards, there was very little signs of the media, although one "photo-journalist", who, despite several friendly warnings, persisted in attempting to coerce some young Nationalists into posing for politically damaging photographs, was later seen leaving town, holding a bloodied handkerchief to his broken nose.

RESEARCH AND INFORMATION

The response to our appeal for photographs and information on various left-wing groups has been phenomenal. Much of this information has been passed over to a new all party"ad-hoc" group, "Pro-Fascist Action", who will be publishing a newsletter, "Target", in the next few weeks.The League will also be sending out a photo supplement to members and subscribers.

SECURITY CHECKS

As part of a new Security exercise, we have been conducting investigations into members of the F.O.L. and subscribers. Already, we have discovered a few names who do not appear on electoral lists, and this makes us very suspicious. Whilst we appreciate that some people are wary of giving their correct names when subscribing, we are also aware of the dangers of allowing infiltrators into our fold. If you cannot trust us with your name, then we do not trust you.

If you are acting against our interests then please be warned. Personal visits are next on our schedule...

GABLE TRIAL

The recent trial of "Searchlight" editor, Gerry Gable was ended prematurely, on the directions of the judge, even before several Policemen had been given the opportunity to give their evidence.

The trial, had in fact,just been used by the defence, to launch a series of scurrilous attacks on the prosecution witnesses.

Mr Keith Thompson, who had booked the venue for a book symposium, on behalf of Steven Books, was, in an attempt to blacken his character, accused of selling confidential documents to Gable. An accusation which he strenuously denied. Two other witnesses, one a man of 55, who had been badly beaten, were accused by the defence, "of launching an attack against the 100 or so "anti-Fascists" that had occupied the hall.

The trial was somewhat dramatically ended, following a "secret" meeting between the Judge, the Defence Barrister, and the Crown Prosecutor.

Justice, was neither done, nor seen to have been done. But, OUR DAY WILL COME.

Editors Note: Mr Thompson is not, and has never been, the editor of this newsletter. Furthermore, he is not a member of the League of St George, and has not been one, for some considerable time. The allegations that he had sold confidential information was made by the defence Barrister, WHO WAS NOT UNDER OATH. Mr Thompson strenuously denied these allegations, and he WAS UNDER OATH.

VIEWPOINT

Much has being made of the claims by the "Express" newspaper as to the final resting place of the remains of the German Nationalist leader Adolf Hitler, and his wife Eva.
Predictably,the German and Zionist authorities are frantic that the remains will become some form of "Holy Relic", and their burial place a place of pilgrimage.
The point that they all seem to be missing is that, the National Socialist creed doesn't revolve around "old bones", but is a living thing, a spiritual thing, and for many, a way of life.
Whilst the originator of the system may have perished almost 50 years ago, there are certainly more National Socialists in the World today, than there ever were during the lifetime of this great man. Proof indeed that not only does Adolf Hitler's inspiration survive, but that it is growing daily. That is the only "relic"that genuine National Socialists need..

Recently released statistics claim that Asians are only 4% of the working population, but account for 8% of small business owners.
Much is also made of the fact that there are now more than 300 Asian millionaires currently living in Britain, most of them self-made, over the last 20 years.
It may sound cynical, but I wonder, just how many of these fortunes began with a small piece of Heroin or Cocaine smuggled into Britain ???

The "Media" are no friends of the Nationalist Movement, whether they be reporters, press photographers, or even television crews, they are all instructed by both their unions, and their employers, to present Nationalists in the worst possible light. In addition to this, many of the photographs taken by photographers hiding behind the guise of a NUJ "Press" card are then passed over to the opposition in exchange for information.
We have been preaching this message to largely deaf ears for some time now, but at last we are glad to see first hand, that our warnings are being heeded.
At the recent Revisionist Seminar,a group of nationalists were approached by two "Press Photographers" who claimed that they had been invited personally by David Irving. Both produced "Press" cards, one claiming to be from a National Sunday paper, and the other a "freelance" working for a German magazine. On being told of the next re-direction point, they immediately went outside and were spotted using a mobile phone. Within minutes the area was swarming with more of these parasites, who sole intention it would seem, was to photograph those going to the seminar.
Fortunately, on arrival at the venue, Mr Irving had decided to exclude all but one of these photographers, and he was only allowed to photograph the announced speakers.
The seminar's Security team,and the Police, both did an excellent job in keeping the rest of these jackals at bay.

And about time too !!!

"SELF DEFENCE IS NO OFFENCE"

WANTED!

THE GOON SQUAD

The group of thugs pictured above, hiding behind a Police Officer, are believed to be some of the leaders of the criminal organisation "Red Action". We already have some information on them, but would welcome any additional information that you might have. The FIGHT BACK has begun..

TARGET

THE QUARTERLY BULLETIN OF "PRO-FASCIST ACTION".

EDITORIAL

Welcome to the First Edition of "TARGET" the journal of "PRO-FASCIST ACTION".

We have debated for some time whether or not to publish the information that we have been collecting and collating, fearing that our motives might be misconstrued, and lead to certain sections of the political spectrum believing that we would wish harm, physical or otherwise, to befall those named within. In fact, nothing could be further from the truth ! Our sole motive for publishing, is to make those who condone physical attacks on members of the Nationalist fraternity, or support the "exposure tactics" of Marxist-Zionist publications such as "Searchlight", realise that THEY TOO ARE VULNERABLE.

The recent physical attack on the BNP's Richard Edmonds, the vandalising of his vehicle, the daubing of John Morse' house and the obscene and threatening phone call campaign against Dave Bruce and his family, CANNOT, AND WILL NOT, GO UNCHALLENGED ! That is OUR message.

Finally, we would like to thank Comrades from the Three Major Nationalist parties, as well as dozens of individual Nationalists for taking the trouble to assist us with this task, with special thanks to the League of St George's "Arrowcross Research and Information Service" and Combat 18's "Redwatch" team.

TARGET ON

Searchlight Magazine, was originally founded in the early 60's and at that time edited by the Zionist-Marxist Labour M.P. Reg Freeson (real name Venitz). By 1967 it had collapsed, but was revived again by a veteran Communist homosexual named Morris Ludmer, who edited it until his death in 1981, when it was taken over by another former Communist Party member, Gerry Gable.

Gable switched Searchlight's business address from Birmingham, to a "prestige accommodation address" at 37b, New Cavendish Street, London, but the actual work was done at a small factory unit in Stratford E.15. When this address was discovered and published by the old National Front, Searchlight quickly moved to a new office in a complex in North London. They now occupy a small office in the INTERCHANGE CENTRE, Dalby Street, London. NW5. under the name of "SEARCHLIGHT SERVICE".

This complex also houses Interchange Studios, Interchange Video's, and various craft workshops. The building, also has a rear entrance in nearby Wilkin Street. It is well placed, being literally just a stones throw from Kentish Town West Station, and is jointly funded by the government's National Development Agency, Camden's Labour council and the Arts council.

The Interchange Project, and the New Playwrights Trust, both of whom are register charities, administer the building. Strangely enough one of Searchlight's main shareholders, Stephen Silver, gives his address as the Interchange Centre, we wonder what the connection is.

When we phoned them, asking for Mr Silver, we were told to ring 071 267 9421. This turned out to be Interchange Video's, who said Mr Silver was out. Further research revealed that a company called Interchange Video's was actually dissolved in 1989 and had not filed any returns to Companies House. This company had been based in Manchester.

A subsequent phone call to the Interchange reception, revealed that Mr Silver was also listed as the occupier of the office rented to "SEARCHLIGHT SERVICE" so could the mysterious Mr Silver in fact be "MR SEARCHLIGHT" ???

Searchlight Magazine's company secretary is Mrs Sonia Gable, of 49, Herent Drive, Clayhall, Ilford. Essex. and the Director is Gerry Gable, of the same address. Gable gives his occupation as being a television journalist,and is also listed as a director of Searchlight Information Services.
Other shareholders listed are Michael Billig, of 7, Ashfield Avenue, Birmingham, Steven Silver, of the Interchange Centre, Dalby Street, London. NW5. and David Edgar, of 67, Cotton Street, Birmingham.

The front of "SEARCHIGHT'S" new hideout at Dalby St, London NW5. This entrance is overlooked by Kentish Town West station.

The rear view of the Interchange Centre at 15, Wilkin Street.

BEWARE EDWARDS

We have confirmed reports that former Racial cartoonist, and newspaper "supergrass" Bob Edwards, has been seen in the company of British Nationalists recently. The "supergrass" was also spotted at the Nationalist gathering in Dixmuide, seemingly under the protection of a well respected Flemish Nationalist family.
For those of you who don't remember Edwards, then let us enlighten you.
In 1980, Edwards, who is quite a talented cartoonist, had gained quite a good reputation in Nationalist circles for his racist cartoons, and became a member of the League of St George.
Because of his talent, he worked on several issues of the then League journal, "League Review". Suddenly, in the latter part of the year, Edwards left the League and joined the new "Constitutional Movement", saying his was "disillusioned" with the League.
However, instead of just taking his leave, Edwards got together with Mike Wlliams, then a reporter from the Kensington Post newspaper, and in a series of articles made the most scurrilous attacks on his former "Comrades" in the League, accusing them of being linked with "International Terror Groups".

As we have said, Edwards has now surfaced from whatever sewer he has been hiding in, and guess who he was seen with in London recently ??, none other than a certain "Freelance Journalist" named MIKE WILLIAMS. We wonder who will be the next victim of an "exclusive exposure"??,
DON'T LET IT BE YOU !

BITS AND PIECES

A row over gay rights has led to a split in the ranks of the Marxist "Socialist Party of Great Britain". A new faction has emerged, calling themselves the "Socialist Party of Britain", and are based at 71, Ashbourne Court, Woodside Park Rd, London. N12. They publish a somewhat tatty newsletter entitled "Socialist Studies".

The Communist Party of Britain, publishers of both the "Morning Star" and "Communist Review" are getting more and more involved in the "Anti Racist Alliance". Have a chat to them by phoning 081 692 4300, or pop in and see them in their East London HQ at 88, Kings Road, London. E11. Also East London Organiser Mickey King would be pleased to hear from you at 85, Buccleach House, Clapton. London. E5.

The much publicised "Kurdish Refugee Group" are in fact all members of the outlawed "Turkish Communist Party". The British Government has given them several large grants, despite the fact that they marched with IRA supporters in their annual "Bloody Sunday" march recently. The "Turds" can be contacted at 489, Kingsland Rd, London. E8. Phone: 071 249 6930

'TARGET" has been kindly distributed by "Comrades" using their own mailing lists.
We DO NOT have YOUR name or address.

Any information that you think may be of interest should be passed on in the same way.

IRA "OUCH"

A suburb piece of intelligence gathering by Pro-Fascists,led to an extremely painful experience for the IRA supporting "Red Action" terrorists recently.
On Saturday the 8th of August, the day of the IRA's annual "Troops Out" march in North London, several prominent members of Red Action were placed under surveillance, and were eventually followed to their meeting place at the "Enkel Arms" pub in Seven Sisters Road, Islington.
About 12 members were having a pleasant drink, when they suffered a fullscale attack by persons unknown.
R.A's notorious "hard man" Gary O' Shea, was spotted cowering under a table, as broken glass from the windows of the pub came in around him.
The pub landlord, a fat Irishman, came outside to fight, but a well aimed bottle persuaded him that it was perhaps marginally safer under the table with Gary. No arrests were made, and the following day the pub strongly resembled a derelict building.
People wishing to express sympathy or condolences to the landlord, can phone him, on 071/607/1493.

"HAPPY HOUR" at the "Enkel Arms."
